

Friends of Wimbledon Park

'Capability Brown's Wimbledon Park'
19th Century Water Colour Circa 1870 by an Unknown Artist

Saturday 8th June 2019

Heritage Wimbledon Park SW19 -

The Wimbledon Club is hosting a Day of Talks, Presentations and Information in
The Lake Room at the Club 10:30am – 4pm

- 10.30am An Early Coffee / Tea – Displays of Capability Brown's designs and Plans for Wimbledon Park, Historical Postcards (Chris Puleston), Special Places for Nature (Dave Dawson), Vistas in the Park (Sam Lloyd) – Friends of Wimbledon Park and Capability Brown Society information desks
- 11.00am The Worshipful the Mayor of Merton (Madame Mayor Janice Howard)
- 11:15am Dr D G ('Dave') Dawson -
"Major works are planned for Wimbledon Park Lake"
- 12.15pm Capability Brown and Heritage Wimbledon Park
Sports provision in Heritage Wimbledon Park -
- 1) Proposed new plans and designs for the Athletics Stadium and re-siting of the Water Activities Centre;
  - 2) Proposed new All-Weather playing surface covering Tennis Courts 11-20 for tennis, Junior Football, and hockey and netball;
  - 3) Victor Ludorum (boys and Victrex Ludorum (girls);
  - 4) Q & A
- Speakers – Martin Sumpton/ Mark Hillier/ Nick Steiner / Simon Ainley / Simon Organ / Football (AFC Wimbledon)
- Break for Lunch (soft drinks, bar, sandwiches and small bites available)
(Please pre-book at Reception – reception@twcsport.co.uk)
- 14.00pm Sarah Gould - Heritage Officer & Local Studies Manager at London Borough of Merton – “Story of Wimbledon Tennis”
- 15.00pm Stuart Coleman and Sophie Brunt (local swimming coach, Wimbledon Park - Teacher and Open Water Enthusiast, a Presentation -

" A Proposal for an Open Water Swimming Club on the Lake in Wimbledon Park" (proposal for a triathlon)
- 4pm End of - Day of Talks

The Event is free but please register at email Reception@TWCsport.co.uk so that we can plan for numbers
A lunch menu is available – please book on arrival so it can be ready for when we break at 13:00pm